Instructions for running the website on your local Computer:

Note: Please have .net and nodeJs installed on your PC for running this website and make sure your .Net framework matches the framework in which this web application is written

##Instructions for launching the Website:

1. Download and clone this repository on your PC
2. Open the folder in terminal
3. change your directory to Client App folder and install there the required node packages by typing command: npm install
4. Come back to root folder of this website in terminal (command prompt/PowerShell) and type command: dotnet run
5. now you should be able to run the web app on https://localhost:5001

Note: Please have .net and nodeJs installed on your PC for running this website and make sure your .Net framework matches the framework in which this web application is written